

YOUTH TO THE EDGE

Pilot Scheme “Youth to the Edge” was launched with the flagging off of three batches for 3 adventure trails at Tinsukia on 28th February 2012. The adventure training of the batches commenced at Roing, Hayuliang and Dzuko Valley in Arunachal Pradesh and Nagaland respectively. The pilot scheme of adventure activities in the NE Region involves NSS participation and has the following distinct components:

- Movements of youth from rest of India to the Border areas of North Eastern States to participate in specially structured adventure activities.
- NER youth to visit rest of India to learn about the country, participating adventure.
- Capacity building of NER youth through skill development programmes/ activities.
